Chapter 5: Sunrise and Sunset

Just let this happen. We just let this flow right out of our minds. Everybody needs a friend. Mix your color marbly don't mix it dead. You need the dark in order to show the light. In your world you have total and absolute power. Let your heart be your guide. Look around, look at what we have. Beauty is everywhere, you only have to look to see it. We don't really know where this goes - and I'm not sure we really care. This is truly an almighty mountain.

Automatically, all of these beautiful, beautiful things will happen. Isn't that fantastic that you can make whole mountains in minutes? Now, we're going to fluff this cloud. It's important to me that you're happy. A little happy sunlight shining through there. Now we don't want him to get lonely, so we'll give him a little friend. Use your imagination, let it go. Don't be afraid to make these big decisions. Once you start, they sort of just make themselves. It's all a game of angles. Anyone can paint. We'll play with clouds today.

We can always carry this a step further. There's really no end to this. For the lack of a better word I call them hangy downs. This is your world, whatever makes you happy you can put in it. Go crazy. That's a crooked tree. We'll send him to Washington. You can work and carry-on and put lots of little happy things in here. The little tiny Tim easels will let you down. You have to allow the paint to break to make it beautiful. This present moment is perfect simply due to the fact you're experiencing it. Just let your mind wander and enjoy. This should make you happy. We'll put a happy little bush here.

You're the greatest thing that has ever been or ever will be. You're special. You're so very special. If there's two big trees invariably sooner or later there's gonna be a little tree. I spend a lot of time walking around in the woods and talking to trees, and squirrels, and little rabbits and stuff. Let that brush dance around there and play. Let's build an almighty mountain. Everything is happy if you choose to make it that way. Isn't that fantastic? You can just push a little tree out of your brush like that.

Let's get crazy. See there, told you that would be easy. Everyone wants to enjoy the good parts - but you have to build the framework first. In this world, everything can be happy. If you didn't have baby clouds, you wouldn't have big clouds. It's life. It's interesting. It's fun. Nice little clouds playing around in the sky. The more we do this - the more it will do good things to our heart. Maybe there's a little something happening right here.

Just pretend you are a whisper floating across a mountain. Let's get wild today. Now we can begin working on lots of happy little things. It's hard to see things when you're too close. Take a step back and look. It just happens - whether or not you worried about it or tried to plan it. Be brave. As trees get older they lose their chlorophyll. It's cold, but it's beautiful. Nature is so fantastic, enjoy it. Let it make you happy.

And I know you're saying, 'Oh Bob, you've done it this time.' And you may be right. We'll do another happy little painting. Just go out and talk to a tree. Make friends with it. We start with a vision in our heart, and we put it on canvas. Nothing's gonna make your husband or wife madder than coming home and having a snow-covered dinner. Of course he's a happy little stone, cause we don't have any other kind. Let's do it again then, what the heck. Even the worst thing we can do here is good. Every time you practice, you learn more.

Let's go up in here, and start having some fun And just raise cain. Let the paint work. This is unplanned it really just happens. Be so very light. Be a gentle whisper. You can do anything here - the only pre-requisite is that it makes you happy. That is when you can experience true joy, when you have no fear. Just think about these things in your mind - then bring them into your world. Just make a decision and let it go. You need to have a very firm paint to do this.

Learn when to stop. If it's not what you want - stop and change it. Don't just keep going and expect it will get better. Let all these things just sort of happen. Maybe there was an old trapper that lived out here and maybe one day he went to check his beaver traps, and maybe he fell into the river and drowned. Brown is such a nice color. See. We take the corner of the brush and let it play back-and-forth. Let's put a touch more of the magic here.

And maybe, maybe, maybe... Now it's beginning to make a little sense. Everyone is going to see things differently - and that's the way it should be. Fluff it up a little and hypnotize it. We need a shadow side and a highlight side. We don't need any guidelines or formats. All we need to do is just let it flow right out of us. This is where you take out all your hostilities and frustrations. It's better than kicking the puppy dog around and all that so. I will take some magic white, and a little bit of Vandyke brown and a little touch of yellow.

Every highlight needs it's own personal shadow. This is your world. You have freedom here. The only guide is your heart. Clouds are free. They just float around the sky all day and have fun. Poor old tree. It is a lot of fun. Let's just drop a little Evergreen right here. Every day I learn.

All you have to learn here is how to have fun. You can create anything that makes you happy. Let's make some happy little clouds in our world. A thin paint will stick to a thick paint. Those great big fluffy clouds. Little trees and bushes grow however makes them happy. Isn't it fantastic that you can change your mind and create all these happy things? In painting, you have unlimited power. You have the ability to move mountains. The least little bit can do so much.

Go out on a limb - that's where the fruit is. Let's put some happy trees and bushes back in here. You have to make those little noises or it won't work. Trees grow however makes them happy. This is the way you take out your frustrations. We'll take a little bit of Van Dyke Brown. La- da- da- da- dah. Just be happy.

There isn't a rule. You just practice and find out which way works best for you. Let's build some happy little clouds up here. If you don't think every day is a good day - try missing a few. You'll see. I sincerely wish for you every possible joy life could bring. I really believe that if you practice enough you could paint the 'Mona Lisa' with a two-inch brush.

We'll paint one happy little tree right here. Working it up and down, back and forth. Water's like me. It's laazy ... Boy, it always looks for the easiest way to do things

You have to make almighty decisions when you're the creator. Volunteering your time; it pays you and your whole community fantastic dividends. Get tough with it, get strong. We don't have anything but happy trees here. We'll put all the little clouds in and let them dance around and have fun. Let's make a happy little mountain now. Let your heart take you to wherever you want to be. The only prerequisite is that it makes you happy. If it makes you happy then it's good. There he comes. Do an almighty painting with us. Remember how free clouds are. They just lay around in the sky all day long. Decide where your cloud lives. Maybe he lives right in here.
